

SECURITY WARNING

Meeting: _____

Your presence at this meeting is based upon the fact that you have been cleared by your department or agency for TOP SECRET. The speaker has been so informed and the entire talk, including questions and answers, and the fact that the speaker has appeared before the group will be regarded as classified information. Information received during this presentation is for use in production of finished intelligence. The source will not be disclosed except to those persons who are engaged in evaluation and must never appear in a finished intelligence report.

The speaker has been requested not to mention clandestine intelligence operations nor clandestine sources of any United States intelligence agency. Do not embarrass him by questions in this respect.

Notes will not be taken unless specifically authorized. In addition and aside from the security aspects, the audience is reminded of their obligation to the speaker in protection of any personal opinions or experiences which he may choose to relate.

An accurate record of attendance is being kept and any indication of even an inadvertent violation will be subject to request for a full investigation by the various agencies represented here.
